Union Station - Dinosaurs Revealed: Journey Across America
Lunch at Grünauer (Austrian)

Join us on this fascinating journey back to prehistoric time. A time when dinosaurs ruled and roamed the earth. A time when the world as we know it was being violently and radically transformed forever! Travel back 252 million years as we reveal dinosaurs that inhabited what is now North America. You will dig deep into life during the Triassic, Jurassic and Cretaceous periods. Your hands-on trek will bring you face-to-face with 26 life-size dinosaurs. See them move, hear them roar and experience their complexity and vast diversity. Examine two massive full body skeletons, dozens of real fossils and get hands-on digging for new evidence. But that's only the beginning..

New Theatre Restaurant: Always... Patsy Cline

Always...Patsy Cline is more than a tribute to the legendary country singer who died tragically at age 30 in a plane crash in 1963. The show is based on a true story about Patsy's friendship with a fan from Houston named Louise Seger, who befriended the star in a Texas honky-tonk in 1961, and continued a correspondence with Patsy until her death. The musical play, complete with down home country humor, true emotion and even some audience participation, includes many of Patsy's unforgettable hits!

Quality Hill Playhouse: Songbook of the 40's

Lunch at The Farmhouse

Poet Rod McKuen captured it perfectly when he quipped, "1939-1945 was a terrible time for the world, but it was a glorious time for songs and fighter pilots." A country battling the effects of war and its aftermath took solace in hundreds of songs of all types, from big band to romantic ballads to novelty songs, many of which are still standards today. Join us for a sentimental journey through America's songbook of the 1940s, featuring hits made popular by the likes of Bing Crosby, Glenn Miller, the Andrews Sisters, and Dinah Shore.

Quality Hill Playhouse: Songbook of the 50's

LUNCH AT THE WESTSIDE LOCAL

Perhaps no decade had more personalities to its music than the 1950s. From the crooners who dominated the early years (Frank Sinatra, Judy Garland, Nat King Cole, Perry Como) to the rise of rock-and-roll and pop stars (Buddy Holly, Connie Francis, Jerry Lee Lewis), and from the heyday of many jazz legends (Ella Fitzgerald, Dinah Washington, Ray Charles, Billie Holiday) to classic musicals such as GUYS AND DOLLS, MY FAIR LADY, and WEST SIDE STORY, this decade had it all – and so will this dynamite cabaret revue!

New Theatre Restaurant: Biloxi Blues

Starring Emmy Winner Peter Scolari

The laughter rarely stops in this Tony Award-winning "Best Play" that tells the story of Eugene Jerome and his experiences as a 19-year-old draftee who, with a handful of other recruits must endure ten weeks of boot camp and a tough as nails, hard-drinking platoon leader in the steaming swamps of Biloxi, Mississippi in 1943.

Quality Hill Playhouse: Songbook of the 60's & 70's

Lunch at Q-39 BBQ!

Follow the evolution of Broadway and jazz into the 1960s and 70s as popular culture shifted to reflect the changing times. Kander and Ebb (CABARET, CHICAGO) and Stephen Sondheim (COMPANY, FOLLIES) transformed the way Americans experienced the Broadway musical through their commentary on society – current and past – while the jazz scene was turned on its head through music that reflected the turbulent change of the era. Celebrate the era of innovation with favorites like “All That Jazz,” “Being Alive,” “Take Five,” and jazz inventions on American standards.

Quality Hill Playhouse: Songbook of the 80's to Present

Lunch Spot to be determined.

“Over the top.” Nothing describes American musical theatre of the 1980s to the present better. Characterized by lavish spectacles and epic plots, musicals like THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA, LES MISÉRABLES, MONTY'S PYTHOM'S SPAMALOT, and WICKED continue to captivate us with their “bigger is better” approach. On the flipside, American popular artists such as Rod Stewart, Joni Mitchell, Michael Buble, and even Lady Gaga (returned to the humble roots of the Great American Songbook for contemporary – yet classic – hits.
